

Kundalini yoga, which stimulates individual growth through breath, chanting, and meditation among other components. Soon after, he founded the Healthy, Happy, Holy Organization (3HO), a nonprofit private educational and scientific foundation with 300 centers in 35 countries, dedicated to improving physical well-being, deepening spiritual awareness, and offering guidance on matters of health and heart. He later also founded a successful drug rehabilitation program that blends ancient yogic wisdom of the East with modern technology of the West.

In 1971, the president of the governing body of Sikh Temples in India gave Yogi Bhan the title of chief religious and administrative authority for Sikhism in the Western Hemisphere. That same year, the Sikh Dharma was legally incorporated and recognized as a religion in the U.S., and soon after Yogi Bhan founded the Sikh ashram that still thrives in Española, New Mexico in my district. Yogi Bhan wrote 30 books and inspired 200 more through his teaching, and inspired the founding of several businesses including Akal Security Inc., one of the fastest growing security companies in the nation. Throughout his lifetime, he traveled the world and met with world leaders such as Pope John Paul II and the Dalai Lama to discuss world peace and religious unity. He also served as informal counsel to numerous political and spiritual leaders. As the resolution states, Yogi Bhan's teachings and the businesses formed under his inspiration, improved personal, political, spiritual and professional relations between citizens of the United States and citizens of the nation of India.

After the terrorist attacks on U.S. soil on September 11th, Yogi Bhan reached out to Sikhs across America, encouraging and helping them to educate their fellow citizens about Sikhs, and to work with law enforcement and community leaders to help them protect Sikh populations. He established links to human rights advocates nationwide to ensure that the issue of Sikh identity was understood and respected. When a Sikh man named Balbir Singh Sodhi was murdered in Arizona five days after 9/11, Yogi Bhan worked with community and government leaders in Arizona to help raise awareness about the Sikh community there, and to honor Balbir Singh with a major memorial event.

I had the privilege of Yogi Bhan's friendship and support for more than 20 years. He was a dynamic, powerful person with a strong devotion to human rights, religious freedom, and good health. Whatever one's faith, he had the right words, the right lesson, and the right message. He spoke to us all, and he inspired us. Around the world he was a powerful voice for peace. I am also proud that my State of New Mexico made history by designating October 23rd as "Yogi Bhan Memorial Day."

The resolution I am introducing today recognizes Yogi Bhan as a wise teacher and mentor, an outstanding pioneer, a champion of peace and compassionate human being, and extends condolences on his passing. I introduced this bill at the end of the 108th Congress, soon after Yogi Bhan's passing, and I hope my colleagues and I can work together to pass the resolution during the 109th. I would like to thank members of the House India Caucus, who helped build support for this resolution, as well as Senators JEFF BINGAMAN, PETE DOMENICI, and JOHN CORNYN, who will introduce the Senate companion. I also thank House International Relations Committee Chairman HENRY HYDE and Ranking Member TOM LANTOS for their strong support, as well as the bipartisan group of original co-sponsors who join me in urging my colleagues to support this important resolution.

HONORING SALLY MAZZARELLA

HON. JOHN E. SWEENEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 26, 2005

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize and honor an extraordinary citizen. Sally Mazzarella, of Rhinebeck, New York, along with help from friends and family, has devoted an immeasurable amount of time and effort to make her community and Dutchess County a better place to live.

Sally has exemplified selfless and tireless community leadership. She is president of the Winnakee Land Trust and serves on the boards of Families First New York and the Center for Performing Arts at Rhinebeck. In the past, Sally has served on the boards of the United Way of Dutchess County, Family and Services Inc., Hudson Valley Philharmonic, and Dutchess Housing Partnership. Since 1990, Sally has worked alongside State Senator Stephen Saland as a Constituent Services Representative working to solve the problems facing the 41st Senate District of NY.

Sally recently served as chairwoman of leadership gifts for the $2.2 million expansion project for the Starr Library. She has co-chaired the YWCA's $2 million capital campaign renovation project and the Mid-Hudson Children's Museum $2.8 million acquisition project. Sally is also chairwoman of the Rhinebeck Comprehensive Plan Revision Project, a community-wide planning initiative focusing on Rhinebeck's future.

Sally has also served as chairwoman of the Town of Rhinebeck Planning Board. She has been an active member of the New York State Planning Federation and the Dutchess County Planning Federation, as a member of Hudson River Shorelines Task Force. Sally also served as a representative of the Chairman of the Dutchess County Legislature on the Hudson Valley Regional Council.

In recognition of Sally's continued work and service to her community, the Community Foundation of Dutchess County has recently honored Sally, as have many other organizations throughout the region over the years. Sally's tireless and dedicated service demonstrates the essence of what it means to be a citizen. People like Sally across the nation form the fabric of our society.

At this time, it is important we honor such individuals for their devoted and generous work, leadership, and service on behalf of their communities. As evidenced by Sally's achievements, it is people like her that make our communities better places to live.

IN HONOR AND MEMORY OF
DETECTIVE LOUIS J. DECK

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, January 26, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Detective Louis J. Deck, loving father, grandfather, friend and mentor, whose life was lived in dedicated and outstanding service to others. As a veteran of the United States Navy, Mr. Deck served our country with courage and honor. As a veteran police officer and detective with the Cleveland Police Department, Detective Deck protected and served the citizens of our community with wisdom, compassion, courage and integrity.

Detective Deck began his law enforcement career in 1967, as a police officer working in the 4th District of the Cleveland Police Department. Just three years later, he was appointed to serve in the Bureau of Special Investigations unit and was soon appointed to the position of Detective. Detective Deck incorporated his street smarts, brave heart, and insight into the human psyche to assist in solving a myriad of criminal cases—cases that sprung from the streets and cases that rose from corporate greed.

Detective Deck's nearly forty-year tenure with the Cleveland Police Department was framed by honor and achievement. Though modest and unimpressed with accolades, Detective Deck's significant contribution to our community did not go unnoticed. In 1985 and 1986, Detective Deck was awarded commendations by the U.S. House of Representatives for his outstanding work as a crime victim liaison. In that capacity, Detective Deck worked diligently to uncover every avenue of assistance for crime victims and their families. Detective Deck's concern for others extended well beyond the bounds of the 4th District. He was a regular volunteer with the Cops & Kids programs at Metro General Hospital, providing a sunny distraction for young patients through his annual transformation from detective to elf. He was also an active member of civic organizations, including the Fraternal Order of Police, the Cleveland Police Patrolman's Association, and the Cleveland Police Historical Society and Museum.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Detective Louis J. Deck, as we reflect on his incredible service to our community as police officer, detective, veteran, volunteer and friend. Detective Deck's integrity, expertise, and focus on protecting and reaching out to those in need will forever serve as a shining example of all that is good in public service. He lived life with a wry smile, quick wit and helping hand, and his legacy of lifting up the lives of countless residents, young and old, will serve as a shining road upon which others should follow, and will forever uplift our entire community. I offer my condolences to his children, grandchildren, extended family and many friends. His life and service to others will live forever in the hearts of everyone who knew and loved him well.
